Other Interesting Facts:

Piggy left home as a teenager, having graduated from charm school where she became the perfect lady she knew she was meant to be. Eventually, Piggy got frequent work as a hand model in commercials. She had acquired numerous admirers by then and protected herself from the most overzealous of them by completing a correspondence course called Karate by Cassette.

Miss Piggy moved to London and went to work in the chorus of The Muppet Show. Her career quickly expanded to include television specials, home videos, records and books. Her how-to volume of advice on absolutely everything, Miss Piggy's Guide to Life, became a national bestseller. This is a grand appearance of the 45 ft. Miss Piggy balloon, which waves from a height of 30 feet above ground. Miss Piggy looks comfortable on her very own, custom-sized Kermit-print pillow.
