Other Interesting Facts:

From the legend of Hercules, Pegasus is as imperial a balloon as you'll ever see. His beautifully airbrushed feathers and feathered wings make him a natural flying character. He was originally made for the Kentucky Derby and his younger son still leads the parade in Louisville every year.

Pegasus is part of Dynamic Displays' vintage stock of characters. Originally made in 1987, he was refurbished and airbrushed for greater artistic detail in 1995.
